

Special Session on Language & Creative Technology

The main objective of the session is to shed the light on integrating technology into the process of English language teaching and learning. This session also aims to enhance the knowledge of English language educators, researchers and experts through discussing and sharing their studies, and experiences. Topics of interest include, but are not limited to:

- Teaching and learning English in the digital era
- E-learning, and Blended Learning of English
- Using Web 2.00 and social media in Teaching and learning English
- Culture, intercultural communication, and Diversity
- Implementing technology in teaching English
- Challenges in using technology in the English language classroom.
- CALL: ‘Computer Assisted Language Learning’
- The impact and use of new technologies in the classroom.
- Online training for English language teachers.
- Using videos and short clips in the classroom.
- Using the Internet for assessment and proficiency tests including IELTS, and TOEFL.
- Digital Learning And Creative Technology

And other topics related to language teaching and learning including:

- Theoretical and Applied linguistics
- Professional Development and Teacher Education

Papers for the special session should be submitted as PDF attachment via e- mail to the session organizers. Authors are invited to submit their papers (04-06 pages) in English language in the conference template format.

Organized by

Dr. Nadia Nuseir, U niversity of Tripoli, Tripoli, Libya

e- mail nuseirn@hotmail.com

Mr. Ahmed Maher, University of Tripoli, Tripoli, Libya

e- mail a.maher@uot.edu.ly

IMPORTANT DATES

Submission Deadline	Authors Notification	Final Manuscript due
February 9, 2019	February 28. 2019	March 14, 2019

Website: <http://www.conf-event.com/CSP.html>